THE PACIFIC Commercial Advertiser.

THE WHALE FISHERY OF THE UNITED STATES .- The New-Belford Whaling List contains some interesting statistics, from which some idea of the extent of the whaling business may be formed. The greater portion of this business is confined to Massachusetts. The whole number of vessels employed is six hundred and five. New-Bedford has two hundred and seventy-five ships and barks, and more than half the tonnage. Nantucket, New-London and Fairhaven have about an equal interest in the business. There are now one hundred and thirty-two large ships and Lahaina, Aug 28, Arab, bk. barks in port, fitting for sea, and they will require nearly four thousand men for officers and crews. The total amount of property invested in the whaling business must be between twenty and thirty millions of dollars. The first seven months of this year, there has been landed about $2,800,000 worth of sperm cil, $4,500,000 worth of whale cil, and $1,200,000 | Ho worth of bone-making a total of $8,500,000 for the first seven months, giving, for year, nearly £15,000,-000 .- Hunt's Merchants' Magazine.

MISERY OF THE MISER .- Of all the creatures upon earth, none is so despicable as the miser. It is not impossible that the profligate may have a friend, for there is usually left about him some touch of humanity-some one unbroken cord of the finer feelings of our nature; but the miser meets with no sympathy. Even the nurse who is hired to attend him in his latest hours loathes the ghastly occupation, and longs for the moment of her release ; for although the death- H damp is already gathering on his brow, the thoughts of the departing sinner are still upon his gold, and at the mere jingle of a key he starts from his torpor in a paroxysm of terror lest a surreptitious attempt is being made upon the sanctity of his strong box. There are no prayers of the orphan or widow for him ; not a solitary voice has ever breathed his name to heaven as a benefactor. One poor penny, given away in the spirit of true charity, would now be worth more to him than all the gold that the world contains; but notwithstanding that he was a church-going man, and familiar from his infancy with these awful texts in which the worship of mammon is denounced, and the punishment of Dives told, he has never yet been able to divorce himself from his solitary love of lust, or to part with one atom of his pelf. And so, from a miserable life, detested and despised, he passes into a drear eternity; and those whom he has neglected or misused, make merry with the hoards of the miser.

WHAT ARE CONSOLS? Every one who reads the accounts of the European money markets, no doubt, de sires to know what "consols" are; and here we have the thing correctly explained, we know not by whom : -"They are 3 per cent English stocks, which had its origin in an act of the British Parliament, consolidating (hence the name) several separate government stocks into one general stock, called in the act, "Consolid ited Annuities," and commonly quoted, for brevity, as "consols." When the consolidation took II place, the principal of the several funds, thus merged, amounted to £3,137,821; but, by the funding of additional and subsequent loans and parts of loans into this stock, it amounted, on the 5th of January, 1836, to £356,768,258. Since that period, only one loan has been raised, that for compensation to the West India planters, on the emancipation of the slaves-£20,000,000—and a few millions have been paid off. The total at the present time, is between three hundred and seventy and three hundred and seventy-five millions. This stock, from its amount and the immense number of its holders, is more sensitive to financial influences than any other, and is, therefore, the favorite stock for the operations of speculators and jobbers. Its dividends are payable semi-annually."

A Love Letter .- The following is a true copy of a billet received by a truant lover in California from his | Atlantic flame; "My dear, sweet Ichabod, how I want to see your big gray eves. Oh, how horrorstricken I am at your long absence! I want to see you and hear your heart thump. Oh, sweet Ichabod, now do come home, and let us get married if you love me. God bless you, if you are not sufficiently blessed in being sweet! Oh, you marygold, you hollyhock, you tulip, you cabbage! Oh, you sweet owl, do come and comfort your dying, smitten Caroline! Oh, but how I do love your big red lips! Oh, you trim, tall fellow, full of the manna of sweet love, how I do want to see you, model of perfection! You have been gone two years, and to me it does seem like a hundred years. Your dear presence would be to me more than the cooling springs to the parened traveler of the desert-more than the pebble I brook to the wanton duck-yes, more than a lump of sugar to a spoiled child. Why, then, will you not come? yes, fly as swift as lightning to kiss the tears from the dimpled cheeks of your mail love! Oh, bleak and wild is the house, the woods, and the world without thee! Oh, yes, bless thee, my dumplin, my jewsharp, my rooster, my gentleman!"

THE HORSE AND THE JACKASS .- A horse and an ass came to the same stream to drink. "How crystalclear is this water," said the horse. "To me, it ap- H pears very muddy," grumbled the ass. No wonder ! he draw with his head down-stream, and the mud ea ne from his own hoofs. All ye who search Holy Writ only to foster doubt, and who, in the very act of searching it, turn your backs on the fountain-head from which it flows, examine well that long-cared and stupid ass, and then, if you can, continue to do
